

Robot Art Gallery

Long a mainstay of contempo and cool in Southtown, Robot Creative and Robot Art Gallery, have been creating synergies between design and art for many years. ROBOT was founded in 1998 as a boutique creative firm by Lara August. When ROBOT relocated to San Antonio's historic Southtown Arts District in 2002, Robot Art Gallery was born. Housed within the same space as the Creative Firm, the gallery features contemporary artwork by emerging artists. Exhibits rotate on a bi-monthly basis, providing new inspiration and fresh perspective on a regular basis.

On display at Robot is Photo-Design: Where Image and Design Meet, showcasing photography that incorporates design and graphic elements by artists Kevin Rayhon, Stephanie Rubiano, and ROBOT's own Andrew Watson.
